

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

The Suspected Murder.

Testimony Before the Coroner's Jury.

[REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE]

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 16.

James Whelan sworn—Was the second person at the body; his daughter went down the bank opposite the body; saw the body before she got to it; cap was a yard from his head; the body was lying on its back; didn't notice any tracks; live about 18 rods below where the body lay; heard the girl screaming first, then ran up there; looked at his head; there was no blood on the snow; hair was matted with blood; none on his coat; was at home when the body was taken away; don't recollect that I looked that way before; was at home the night before; heard no disturbance the night before; there was no appearance of a struggle around or near the body.

James Sykes and Helen Riley were called, but nothing material was elicited from either, not before the jury.

Michael Henchy testified to being out Saturday night with John Moran and Mike Flaherty. At Mr. Judge's, they met McFarland, who was intoxicated. While there Moran and Flaherty whispered, making up friends about a fuss they had had. When they left Mrs. Judge's, McFarland fell down near Riley's house, but got up again. He then walked away, turning off to the right. Henchy did not see Moran at all. He was at Crane's, (formerly Mrs. Flaherty,) last night.

Mrs. McFarland was recalled, and testified to taking a pocket book from the body of her dead husband, but no money in it, though McFarland said the night before he had $9.

Anna McFarland, sworn—Am daughter of McFarland; found my father Sunday on the swamp; was on the bank when I saw him, and I ran down opposite him; he lay about 2 yards from the bank; his mouth and eyes were open, and his hands were up and open; I put his hands down and shut his eyes and mouth; the wound was on the left side of his head; skirt of his coat was under his head and some blood on it; was blood on snow where his head lay; did not notice any tracks; saw some blood about 2 blocks from the slaughter house; did not see many tracks around there; saw a couple of tracks down the river, outside the fence to the bridge; am 17 years old.

Mrs. Ann Cooley corroborated other witnesses as to the persons present at Mrs. Judge's Saturday night, and the testimony as to McFarland's intoxication.

Admitted at half-past 1 o'clock.

FAT BEEF.—Egglestoner, at his market below the American, has some beef which is fit for the table of a king. It was bought of Mr. Kellum, near Milton, and shows what can be done in raising good stock when the effort is made. Egglestoner has several more of the "same sort," which he will have in his market as the wants of his customers require.

BAKER & CRAVEN'S MINSTRELS.—This troupe of minstrels perform at Lippin's Hall to-morrow and Friday evenings. Such exhibitions seem to please many of our citizens, and as this troupe is reputed to be a good one, we infer that those who attend will be well entertained.

BURNS' ANNIVERSARY.—We call attention very cheerfully to the advertisement of the Burns' festival in this city next week Friday. The countrymen of the poet will be there in large numbers, and the many friends they have made in this country will meet as pleasant a company as the state can assemble. All the arrangements are on a scale commensurate with the expected attendance.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Sunday last a young lady, aged 15 years, daughter of Mrs. Lemuel Holmes, whilst arranging her toilet, holding a pin in her mouth, accidentally, by a sudden inspiration, forced the pin, which was of more than usual size, far down into the windpipe, giving rise to most violent disturbance and danger. An operation for its removal was rendered immediately necessary, which was performed by Dr. Chittenden assisted by Dr. Lane. The pin was removed by opening into the windpipe in the lower part of the neck. The young lady was under the influence of chloroform, and experienced no pain during the operation. She is doing well up to this date, with every prospect for perfect recovery. The practice of placing pins in the mouth is one of great danger, and the instance above should furnish a lesson of warning to mothers, and through them to their children.

SAD ACCIDENT.—A son of Mr. Button, residing in the 3d ward of this city, was thrown from a horse last Monday, and so much injured that he died last evening. The lad was nine years of age.

Remember the temperance lecture this evening. This lecture is free, and closes the course.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.

Mr. Cox of Ohio presented the resolutions passed by the legislature of Ohio, expressing its attachment to the Union, against the right of secession, declaratory that the laws should be maintained, and against one state intermeddling with the laws of another. He said that although the legislature had not unanimously passed these resolutions, the state has already begun the work of conciliation by considering the personal liberty bills, and he had been assured that the work will go on till every obnoxious act shall be removed from the statute book, and full justice done to all sections. The resolutions were laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Briggs, of New York, presented a memorial, numerously signed, by citizens of New York, in favor of the propositions made by the border states' committee. The house went into committee of the whole on the state of the Union, and took up the army appropriation bill.

Mr. Garnett, of Virginia, thought the time had come when they should consider the dangers which threaten the Union. The cause of the present crisis is not the mere election of Lincoln, but the domination of one section over another, differing in character, institutions and race.

The republican party has already advanced till they have gained possession of nearly all the northern states. It controls the house now, and it cannot be long before it will have entire possession of the legislative and executive departments, unless there is some great change, which is not likely to occur. The republican party is an anti-slavery party; without opposition to slavery it could never have come into being, and without this it would dissolve.

The party is eminently sectional, because no southern state could approve or unite with it. The party is made up of abolitionists, with American and deserters from the democratic party.

In course of time the republicans will have the necessary two-thirds to change the constitution, to the detriment of the south, and the destruction of her prosperity.

Mr. Calhoun, years ago, predicted the results of the antagonistic organization of northern society. The corruption of the city government of New York, was mentioned by Mr. Garnett to show that the natural workings of the government were based on numerical majority.

SENATE.—The Vice President presented a message from the president, answering the senate resolution of inquiry as to his appointment of Hon. J. Holt to perform the duties of the office of secretary of war, made vacant by the resignation of Floyd. He fully sets forth the legal reasons.

On motion of Mr. Bigler, Mr. Crittenden's resolutions were taken up. Mr. Latham of Cal. opposed the amendment of Mr. Powell. If the amendment is adopted the constitution will be so worded that the extension of slavery will be forever precluded. We will never get Cuba.

He did not want to take any step which would again precipitate the question on the American people. We understand the question thoroughly and if the amendment should go before them, they would never consent.

The chair, Mr. Foote of Vt. decided that the unfinished business being the Pacific railroad bill had precedence of the special order, being the bill for the admission of Kansas. As Mr. Bigler of Pa. moved to postpone other business, to take up Mr. Crittenden's amendment, Mr. Wade called for the yeas and nays. The motion was agreed to by a vote of 27 yeas to 20 nays.

Mr. Rice, of Minnesota, introduced a resolution providing for the appointment of a special committee of seven by the senate, to inquire into the expediency of passing a general act for the admission of a new state, and a readjustment of the limits of California, Minnesota and Oregon, viz: First, the admission of New Mexico, to be bounded north by 37 deg. of latitude, east by Texas, south by Texas and the Mexican boundary, west by the 114 degree of longitude.

Second, the admission of Kansas, to include the present territory of Kansas and Utah east of the 100 deg. of longitude and a small portion of Nebraska which lies south of latitude 46 deg.

Third, An enlargement of the jurisdiction of Minnesota, to embrace the present territory of Dakota, and the portion of Nebraska lying north of latitude 42 deg.

Fourth, The enlargement of the jurisdiction of Oregon, so as to include the territory of Washington.

Fifth, The readjustment of California so as to include that portion of Utah and New Mexico lying west of the 114th deg. of latitude.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.

Gen. Dix entered upon the duties of his office as secretary of the treasury, and attended the cabinet meeting, yesterday. Mr. Holman, the chief clerk, has been commissioned as assistant secretary in place of Clayton.

Should the terrible conflagrations that are sweeping over the country in all directions prove as frequent and disastrous for a twelve month to come as they have during the last eighteen months, very many of the small Fire Insurance Companies, having their agents scattered throughout the west, must go to the wall, there is no salvation for them. If you would be safe, safe beyond peradventure, always insure with companies that are known to be sound. Such, and such only, are represented at DIMOCK'S Insurance & Real Estate AGENCY.

Cash Capital, $500,000 00
Assets, July 1, 1860, 993,208 28
Liabilities, 14,728 32

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders, 1857, 33 1/2c
2d " " " " 1858, 50 " "
3d " " " " 1859, 50 " "
4th " " " " 1860, 45 " "

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the system was inaugurated.

1857, " " " " $870,253 43
1858, " " " " 487,719 54
1859, " " " " 505,081 84
1860, " " " " 505,081 84

Third—The insured incur no liability when, while obtaining these advantages of superior security and cheapness.
